

SHAUN BARRY is the global leader for Fraud & Risk Solutions for IBM. In this role, he is responsible for developing and implementing solutions that give fraud investigators and analysts powerful, easy-to-use data mining tools.

Mr. Barry has 11 years of experience with IBM in working with private and public sector clients to foster innovative and efficient business processes through technology. He specializes in tax/revenue and healthcare functions. Prior to joining IBM, Mr. Barry worked for state government agencies in the U.S. states of South Carolina and Ohio.