

FRANCIS BUEB is a manager in the Grant Thornton State, Local and Education practice. He holds six professional audit related certifications and has more than 19 years of experience in the performance and management of internal audits, IT and business process consulting, and forensic accounting. His experience expands a wide range of organizations, including private companies as well as state and local government, and has experience in the selection and implementation of major financial, operational and reporting systems. His expertise includes internal controls enhancement and process improvements through the leveraging of technology and change management. He has provided financial analysis and consulting on accounting related litigation matters, and has experience in litigation strategy and organization, data mining, electronic discovery issues and data retention.