

ELLEN EICHMAN is an IBM practice executive, specializing in the public sector. Ellen has over 25 years of experience in information technology, with the last 15 years devoted to business intelligence and performance management solutions. She leads a team of implementation experts, supporting IBM clients in the United States. In her current role, Ellen consults with and advises customers on the potential, challenges and best practices in the evolving use of business intelligence and performance management technologies in the public sector.

Since the announcement of the Recovery Act, Ellen has led a team of Cognos developers in developing an application for capturing and reporting on the federally mandated ARRA reporting requirements. She has advised government clients such as Arkansas Department of Education, Georgia Department of Education, state of Utah, state of Arizona, Miami Dade County and the Department of Justice.