

CHUCK ELLSTROM is an emergency management strategist with SAS. He has over 16 years government experience including 11 in emergency management and over 6 years experience with SAS software solutions including the creation of a comprehensive disaster management intelligence solution. With over 16 years of experience, Mr. Ellstrom has repeatedly demonstrated strengths in creating comprehensive disaster management solutions, disaster planning, disaster recovery operations, team building, and successful interpretation and execution of client requirements.

He has an M.P.A. and a B.S. in history and political science from East Carolina University.