

GLEN B. GAINER III was elected West Virginia's nineteenth state auditor in November 1992 and re-elected November 1996, 2000, 2004 and 2008. Auditor Gainer earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Charleston, and attended the Washington Center for Learning.

As state auditor, he serves as the state's official bookkeeper, chief inspector and supervisor over public offices, securities commissioner, and commissioner of delinquent and non-entered lands.

Auditor Gainer serves as vice-chairman of the West Virginia Consolidated Public Retirement Board; trustee on the West Virginia Investment Management Board and is chairman of its Audit Committee; trustee of the West Virginia Board of Treasury Investment and chairman of its Investment Committee; chairman of the Interstate Commerce Appeals Board; and a member of the Board of Public Works as well as several other state boards and commissions. Auditor Gainer also serves as chairman of the board of directors of the National White Collar Crime Center; president of the National Association of State Auditors Comptrollers and Treasurers; president of the West Virginia Jump Start Coalition; past president of the National Electronic Commerce Coordinating Council; past president of the National Association of State Comptrollers and was listed in Who's Who in American Politics. Additionally, Auditor Gainer is active in local church and community activities.