

BIOGRAPHY

HERBERT A. MAGUIRE, MBA, CPA, CGFM

Herb joined the Pennsylvania Office of the Budget, Comptroller Operations, in January 1987 and currently serves as the Director of the Bureau of Financial Management. He is responsible for producing the Commonwealth's Comprehensive Annual Financial Report; devising and maintaining central financial accounting and reporting policies and procedures, developing and supporting enterprise-wide financial systems and business applications, and providing financial consulting and advisory services to agencies under the governor's jurisdiction.

From 1997 to March 2001, Herb served as the director of the Bureau of Audits and was responsible for providing central audit support and technical audit services to agencies under the governor's jurisdiction. Prior to this, he served as the assistant comptroller for audits in the Public Health and Human Services Comptroller Office, and as the chief of audit policy, planning and development in the Bureau of Audits.

Before joining the Office of the Budget, Herb served ten years with the Pennsylvania Department of the Auditor General, most recently as the director of the Bureau of Federal Audits.

He holds a B.S. in accounting from Lehigh University and an MBA from Lebanon Valley College. He is a certified public accountant and a member of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants and serves on the PICPA's Local Government Auditing and Accounting Committee. Herb is also a member and past president of the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants.
