

LYNNETTE A. RICHMANN
Partner, Information Technology Advisory Services
KPMG LLP

Lynnette A. Richmann is a partner in KPMG's information technology advisory practice. Lynnette is based in Seattle and has over 17 years of professional experience, including a unique blend of technical, business process improvement, governance and risk management skills. She has led multi-disciplinary teams in the delivery of a broad spectrum of client services, including information technology, security, privacy, business continuity, enterprise risk management, and internal audit.

Lynnette's professional experience spans several industries including banking, insurance, software, manufacturing, telecommunications, retail, state/local government and healthcare. Today, Lynnette leads KPMG's West Area Identity and Access Management practice. Lynnette serves on KPMG's National Information Protection Privacy Leadership Team, and KPMG's State and Local Government Information Technology Leadership Team.

Lynnette began her career as a financial statement auditor with Arthur Andersen, where she served several large, multinational registrants. Later, Lynnette joined Andersen's business consulting practice, focusing on process reengineering, enterprise risk management and regulatory compliance. In addition to Andersen, Lynnette has also served in industry as a chief compliance officer and director of internal audit at Swedish Health Services.

Lynnette studied industrial engineering and computer science at Iowa State University. She holds a master's of business administration in finance and a bachelor of arts in accounting from Michigan State University. She is a member of the Information Systems Audit and Control Association, International Association of Privacy Professionals, Institute of Internal Auditors, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Washington State Board of Accountancy. Lynnette is a certified public accountant, licensed in Washington, and a certified information security manager.

Lynnette currently serves on the Board of Directors of Family Services of King County. Lynnette's previous volunteer activities include Community for Youth, and past board positions on Alzheimer's Association and CHOIES Education group.