

DR. ROBERT J. RUFUS is the managing principal of Rufus & Rufus CPAs located in Huntington, WV, and the director of programs for the Executive Master of Forensic Accounting at the University of Charleston, located in Charleston, WV. In addition, Dr. Rufus is a co-founder of the Forensic Institute and a co-developer and lead instructor of its Accredited Fraud Investigator training program.

Dr. Rufus received his doctor of business administration degree in 2007 from Nova Southeastern University, master of business administration in 1981 from Marshall University and bachelor of science in 1978 from Concord College. He is a certified public accountant, certified valuation analyst, certified in financial forensics and an accredited fraud investigator. Dr. Rufus is also a licensed private investigator.

Dr. Rufus began his professional career as an IRS agent (1981-1985). Since leaving the IRS, he has provided expert witness services in more than 750 criminal and civil cases. Dr. Rufus has contributed to the science of forensic accounting through numerous publications and conference presentations.