

NSAA 2023

EMERGING ISSUES MEETING

October 10-11 | Nashville, TN

General Information

NSAA is pleased to announce an Emerging Issues Meeting, scheduled for October 10-11 in Nashville, Tennessee. This meeting is designed to give state auditors an additional chance this year to come together to discuss timely and pressing issues. This event is being provided with support from the Tennessee Office of the Comptroller of the Treasury.

While there is no cost to attend, registration is required and is limited to 2 staff per NSAA member office (the principal and one additional person, or 2 staff if the principal cannot attend). Up to 8 credits of CPE will be provided.

EVENT VENUE

The Hermitage Hotel

231 Sixth Avenue North
Nashville, TN 37219

- Room rate: $150 + all applicable taxes for the evening of October 10th
- Reservations: (855) 968-0098
- Reference: NSAA Emerging Issues Meeting.

The Hermitage is a quick 20 minute drive from the Nashville International Airport. Valet parking is available for $55 + tax per night. There are other self-parking lots nearby with various rates.

REGISTER

Contact Kathleen Young, CMP, to register your office's two attendees:

- kyoung@nasact.org
- (859) 276-1147

AGENDA

Up to 8 CPE will be offered.

Technical questions may be directed to NSAA Director Josh Winfrey at jwinfrey@nasact.org.

AGENDA Download the complete agenda at www.nasact.org.

Tuesday, October 10 (day begins at 1:55 p.m. CT)

- Opening Remarks
TN Comptroller of the Treasury Jason Mumpower
- Organizational Leadership
Dr. Candice McQueen, President, Lipscomb University
- Auditing Roundtable
- Networking Reception

Wednesday, October 11 (day ends at 2:35 p.m. CT)

- Economic Update
Laurel Graefe, Federal Reserve Bank
- Human Resources Roundtable
- Networking Lunch
- Media and Messaging
John Dunn, Communications Director, TN Office of the Comptroller of the Treasury
- Closing Remarks
TN Comptroller of the Treasury Jason Mumpower

