OVERVIEW

NASACT is pleased to announce the latest in its series of training events addressing timely issues in government accounting, auditing and financial management.

This two-hour session will include a deep-dive by the GASB staff into the new Financial Reporting Model proposal as states finalize their responses to the GASB’s preliminary views. Topics to be covered include:

- Recognition standards for governmental funds, including alternative views
- Presentation of governmental and proprietary fund financial statements
- Budgetary comparison schedule placement and content

In addition, the GASB staff will highlight the most significant questions that are being proposed in the Implementation Guide Update—2019 and Fiduciary Activities Implementation Guide. The review of these guides will include key new questions being proposed in the update and classification and financial reporting questions and answers associated with the implementation of Statement 84, Fiduciary Activities.

Don’t miss this opportunity to stay current on these important GASB projects!
