

NASACT WEBINAR

Leading Your Multigenerational Workforce
Through Unprecedented Times

October 15 | 2:00 - 3:15 p.m. Eastern

OVERVIEW

NASACT is pleased to announce the latest in its series of training events addressing timely issues in government accounting, auditing and financial management.

For the first time in history, five generations now share the workplace, and leaders must balance a generation gap of multiple decades between the oldest and youngest employees. These issues are exacerbated during challenging times, such as the global Covid-19 pandemic and its aftermath. Lindsey Pollak, a multigenerational workplace expert and New York Times bestselling author, will share her insights and actionable advice on such topics as managing teams (remotely and in person), succession planning, building employee morale and promoting inclusivity, all through a generational lens.

- Please note: this webinar is available only via computer audio. There will not be a phone dial-in option to participate.
- We have a 3,000-seat limit for this webinar. After registering, please go ahead and click the link in your confirmation email to get your GoToWebinar access (this applies to individuals and to each member of a group participating in a different location). Do not wait for the day of the webinar to get your GoToWebinar link. Once the 3,000 seats are filled, others will not be able to gain access to the webinar.
