Speaker Biographies

Rhea Hubbard is a Senior Policy Analyst with the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), Office of Federal Financial Management (OFFM). She contributes to government-wide initiatives to improve Federal financial assistance policies, processes, and systems. In this role, she engages with relevant Government and non-Federal stakeholders on key issues to foster more efficient and effective Federal management. She is currently the OMB staff lead for the Results-Oriented Accountability Cross-Agency Priority Goal under the President's Management Agenda.

She started her decade long Federal career in grants management operations and later transitioned into policy. She is passionate about solving long-standing grants management challenges to ensure successful results for the American taxpayer while finding opportunities to alleviate recipient burden.

Rhea has a Master of Public Policy Degree from American University and a Bachelor in Arts Degree in Psychology from the University of Missouri – Columbia.
